HR 20000 Sec: 04	She is one of the most outstanding professor at Hunter. She gave her time to help students understand and learn. Cannot be more perfect as a Human Rights Professor. Will definitely take her again.
	simply outstanding! Your compassion is inspiring and it is more than obvious that you care about your students. You made a rather difficult subject fairly easy to follow. Thank you for all the time and effort you put into our class and into me especially. I will never forget all the nice things you did for me. You are an asset to hunter and by far the best professor I have ever had in my entire college career.
	I am very appreciate to be one of the class. She is one of the best instructors at Hunter.
	I'm so glad I got to take this class with you as my professor! You have exceeded my expectations, and have gone above and beyond for your students, which is extremely admirable! You definitely know what you're talking about, and you are fully capable of explaining things in a succinct and clear way. You have so much caring for your students, and it really shows - especially by emailing after class about certain comments made in class!!!! The assignments were so enriching, where you really made people think about their perspective on the topic and question if they understood it at all. You are so encouraging, for life and the course, and it was an extreme pleasure to be taught by you :) Suggestion: Be your flawless, stylish, composed self! And perhaps have a public speaking workshop to encourage the students to do presentations and just have skills for life!
	Professor Brown is one of the very few teacher outside of Media department who is actually great. The food is great and very much appreciated. The student presentation on different topic is extremely helpful because it makes that particular student really go in depth into that topic. The presentation also helps students gain confidence and gives them a small stage for public speaking, which is one of the best thing a student can have. And this class fulfills a requirement. If you don't like Professor Brown, maybe there is something wrong with you.
	Prof. Russell-Brown is one of the best professors I've had the opportunity to take at Hunter. As if the dedication and the passion she has for her subject aren't evident enough, she goes beyond the call of duty to show each of her students that she is genuinely interested in there lives. I truly could not have asked for a better HR200 professor!
	Outstanding and brilliant professor.

HR 20000 Sec: 04	This class was intellectually stimulating but also challenging. Professor Russel-Brown gives challenging reading but explains them clearly. The class is largely discussion based which is very helpful to people looking to establish their political beliefs. She really cares about each and every student and if you are willing to invest your time in her class, she will go above and beyond for you.
	A very sweet, warmhearted, respectable, and knowledgeable professor who was easy to talk to. She made the classroom setting very comfortable and fun, that it didn't even feel like I was going to class. Normally, I have a difficult time doing presentation as I get very antsy and nervous but surprisingly, I was able to confidently present and talk in front of the classroom. Professor Russell-Brown has a special ability to make people feel welcome and at ease. Furthermore, she approaches human rights theories and issues that is easy to understand and digest which I believe is essential for a Intro to Human Rights class.
	Professor Russell-Brown is one of the most intellectual, caring, and passionate teachers I've ever had in my educational career. She not only knows the material she is teaching but she goes above and beyond to insure that we as her students know the material and can provide examples for it as well. She has challenged me intellectually and made me want to be a better student especially in the Human Rights Dept. Anyone in her class has the capability to excel because she provides constructive feedback and is willing to meet with her students individually so that they can understand the material. I'd encourage anyone to take a class with her as their professor.
	I am so happy I took this course. It has increased my interest in the field. I will recommend this course and this Professor to my friends and friends of my friends. Professor Sherrie Russell-Brown is brilliant teacher, highly intelligent and professional, very kind. I am lucky I have chosen this course. THANK YOU!!!!
	I never had a Professor in Hunter like Prof. Russel Brown. She is absolutely amazing in her teaching and really knows how to engage the class fully. Discussion was always done in class and everyone always participates. She definitely cares about her students a lot. Definitely looking forward to another class with her.
	Such a great professor. She's ready to help and really kind to students. Explains material well with guided material, visual aid and audio/videos. She provides lots of resources. She allows us to have discussions in class that challenge me intellectually. She makes sure students understand and provides feedback and answers questions if we have any.
